Reports

Board President J Dinno Nistico reported on the following:

Liaisons: Taste of ARE was held, 15 families represented 12 countries. The school-wide trip to Arnold Park was held, Jared Campbell performed. The Vestival showcased our students' musical talents. Amy McDonald was thanked for the great job on the prom party, along with all those who helped put it together. The Town of Vestal is planning a $2.5million renovation to the public pool; 2023 will be the bicentennial celebration for the town. Drama Club and Vestal Voices held performances. The District Council held their annual awards dinner.

--Board members were reminded to follow the directions for the graduation ceremony
--the answers to specific questions raised by a high school employee at the last meeting were read; these answers were also posted on the Board's webpage
--student achievements were highlighted: Evertech student achievements (including the valedictorian and salutatorian); one student achieved the Seal of Biliteracy in 5 languages (only student in NYS to do so) and 63 students will be awarded the Seal of Civic Readiness (most in NYS)

Superintendent Jeffrey Ahearn reported on the following:

--the Board's summer workshop will include a presentation from law enforcement on the safety protocols in the District. This information will again be included in the annual Convocation Day events held at the beginning of every year.

--there have been 20 meetings regarding the next proposed capital project. Currently it would be around a $39 million project. The scope will be narrowed down to $35 million with prioritizing the 'wish list'. The committee will continue to meet; we are on target to have the referendum vote in December.

On motion by John Hroncich, second by Lynne Majewski, the Board voted 7 to 0 to accept Schedule A – Treasurer's Report May 2022, Schedule B – Year-to-Date Budget Report May 2022, Schedule C – Schedule of Bills May 2022 and approve Schedule P – Personnel.
