PROCEDURES FOR USE OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

- The Vestal Board of Education or Superintendent may waive facility use fees for non-profit, tax-exempt Vestal youth organizations. Proof of non-profit, tax-exempt status must be submitted with the Application for Use of School District Facilities.
 - If an organization misuses school district property, Its waiver of facility use fees may be rescinded.
- All organizations will be responsible for the cost of damages to school property occasioned by its use.
- All facility use requests must be approved by the Superintendent or designee prior to use, not just the building administrator.
- No organization may monopolize the use of a facility.
- Organizations may not reserve two locations, with one requested as a backup. Such requests will not be honored in order to allow building access for other groups.
