

John Todd Mansfield

Class of 1979

After graduating from SUNY Health and Science Center in physical therapy, Todd spent one season with the New Jersey Nets as their physical therapist. In 1986, Todd opened Southern Tier Physical Therapy Associates. He currently has offices in Coming, Binghamton and Vestal. For the last ten years, Todd has acted as the physical therapist for Vestal School District athletes and has also treated hundreds of college and professional athletes during his career. Todd donated the score boards for the boys soccer, boys baseball and girls softball fields. He donated the batting cage to the boys baseball team and also donated money for new award banners to hang in the gym. In 1998 he was selected as the “Small Business Person of the Year” by the Broome County Chamber of Commerce.
