Clayton Avenue Elementary receives $5,000 donation from new Burlington Store

Burlington Stores, a major off-prices retailer, through its partnership with the national non-profit AdoptAClassroom, has donated $5,000 to Clayton Avenue Elementary School for its students. This is in celebration of its new store now open in Vestal's Town Square Mall.

A representative from AdoptAClassroom.org contacted Bradley Bruce, Principal at Clayton Avenue Elementary, and helped him secure the donation for his school, which will provide funds to purchase building-wide flexible seating and sensory tools for classrooms.

"On behalf of Clayton Ave Elementary, we're absolutely thrilled to accept this generous donation and welcome our new local Burlington store," said Principal Bruce at the ribbon-cutting on October 28, 2022. "We're going to have amazing fun spending $5,000 on our kids. We appreciate Burlington and AdoptAClassroom.org... thank you for everything you've done!"

Burlington is committed to supporting education through its partnership with AdoptAClassroom.org. Each time Burlington opens a new store, it celebrates by adopting and funding a local school in their store community. The new Burlington store is now open at 2433 Vestal Parkway East, in the Town Square Mall, Vestal.
