Annual Holiday Craft Fair, hosted by Vestal Teachers Association, to benefit Vestal Dollars for Scholars

This year's annual Holiday Craft Fair takes place from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. on Sunday, December 4, at the Vestal High School. Hosted by the Vestal Teachers Association, the Holiday Craft Fair features 90 vendors and is an excellent opportunity to finish (or begin!) your holiday shopping.

The Vestal High School will be filled with hand-crafted items, including pottery, jewelry, crocheted and knit textile art, quilted crafts, dolls, wooden signs and other gifts, plus delicious candies and other food gifts. From maple syrup to jams and jellies, there will be many ideas for terrific stocking stuffers.

Admission is free and all proceeds benefit Vestal Dollars for Scholars. You can also support our Vestal Marching Band students if you enjoy lunch or a snack while you are shopping! The Vestal Band Boosters will have a food concession during the Holiday Craft Show. So, grab a friend and head to Vestal High School on December 4 to find the perfect gifts for everyone on your gift list, enjoy lunch and support our Vestal School community.
